MYSTERIOUS DEVELOPMENT. -On the corner of Wall and Front streets, in the city of Jeffersonville, Indiana, stands an ancient brick romantic tales, and traditions of every hue and character are associated with it by the old citizens of the place. It was once the rendezbeen committed within its walls. Many innocent and unsuspecting girls have been lured nate victims have met with violent deaths by their seducers. The building is in a very dilapidated condition, but was purchased a few days since by the Jeffersonville Railroad Company, on account of the room it affords for offices. In repairing the building, the workmen took up the old floor, and to their astonishment of an infant, wrapped in cloth. The remains burned the Academy and Masonic Hall, set fire to a church, and stole all the horses, cat-perhaps, upwards of thirty years beneath the floor of this notorious house, and, until very recently, it has been occupied by different persons during this entire period. The maidens whose skeletons are now exhumed, had they lived, would be old ladies, and the innocent babe would now be in the meridian of life. In all probability their murderers have ere this passed from earth, and rendered their account to that great tribunal that visits justice upon all who escape the penalty of their crime in this world.

The price of fresh beef is coming down. Some of the beef is of an indifferent quality and lacks fatness. The price will doubtless be much lower as the winter advances. The farmers, in many sections, in consequence of the failure of the grass crop, and the high the failure of the grass crop, and the high price of feed, will be compelled to kill off large numbers of their stock cattle, and sell them at whatever figure they can get. They canat whatever figure they can get. They cannot afford to feed them through the winter. This will throw quantities of meat into the principal markets, and prices will rule lower than for many years past. It is true much of winter supply of meat, owing to the high prices, can afford to lay in a stock this fall, and will doubtless take advantage of the opportunity. Some persons may be disposed to inquire why it is that they have to pay so high a price for their steaks and roasts, in our markets, since cattle can be purchased at so low a figure. The reason is this: prime fat cattle are scarce and command good prices. The butchers are compelled to serve their customers with the choicest quality, and hence the retail rates

New York is to have a Fair for the Commission. Chicago has had hers, vielding the noble income of $59,000 for this noblest of charities. New York cannot do less than Chicago—is not inferior, let us believe, in patriotism, and shall give even more abundantly in proportion to her superior wealth and opportunities. The Fair is to be opened on the 22d of February, 1864, a date sufficiently remote for the amplest preparations. The women of New York are to take charge, committees being duly arranged for the complete and orderly management of all departments. They will solicit contributions from all loyal citizens, and of every kind. At Chicago there was scarcely any branch of industry that was unrepresented by gifts. Every man and wocan, every corporation which produces anything salable ought to give some part of their labor for the benefit of this Fair. They will all be summoned to give; nobody will be denied the privilege of contribution. The trades, the arts, the professions, every calling may find some fit means of expressing its sympathy with the object of this charity.

To excel Chicago in the line of local sensations would be difficult. Rape, murder, arson, etc., are as thick in its records as blackberries on a productive vine. The crop is not only large, but regular. Every morning brings forth its fresh supply. The Tribune of Wednesday is before us, with this list of local contents: "Arrest of a Desperate Villain-Attempt to Swindle the Illinois Central Railroad." "A New Scandal-A Young Lady Elopes with a Drug Clerk." "Indictment for Murder Disposed Of." "Robbery at the Tremont House." "Melee on the Archer Road -Men, a Woman, and Boys on a Rampage." The details, which are arranged under displayed heads, and written in the highest style of the sensation art, occupy two columns and a half. On the same page we find a report of a discussion, by the Chicago Sabbathschool Union, "On the Doctrine of Human Depravity." The record we have referred to proves that, at least in Chicago, men and women are depraved; and the Chicago papers certainly are not disposed to put the evidence of this depravity under a bushel.

CURIOSITY OF VISION .- A person may see the blood-vessels of his eyes displayed as it were on a screen before him by a most simple experiment. Let a lamp or candle be held in one hand, and the eye directed steadily forward; now move the lamp up and down, or side-ways, on one side of the line of vision; in a short time an image of the blood-vessels will present itself, like the picture of a tree or shrub, with its trunk and branches, to the admiration of the observer.

Southern News.—The following items of Southern news are gathered from Richmond papers of late dates:

[From the Whig Nov. 14]

[From the Whig Nov. 14] [From the Whig, Nov. 14.]

Longstreet and Bragg.—The Memphis Appeal quotes some remarks of this paper about the "noble Longstreet and the heroic Bragg," and says "the words of the President, upon which the criticism of the Whig is based, have been erroneously reported." The correct language of the President, as heard by one of the Editors of this paper, was "plane accepted." Editors of this paper, was "plans soon to be attempted by the noble Longstreet and devised by the heroic Bragg." The President was speaking of the prospective movements of the army, and we are not satisfied that the terms "noble" and "heroic" were used at all; if need they certainly left with resident sections. if used, they certainly left no impressions upon our mind.

We quoted the language of the speech as given in the telegraphic report of the Press Association, the accuracy of which, up to this time, has never been called in question. But we have more confidence in the auditory nerves of the Editor of the Appeal than in an association which is managed, to so large an extent by Northern were On another over extent, by Northern men. On another occasion the President was misrepresented, but then Bragg's Adjutants were responsible for "the shafts of malice." The President's visit to the South seems to have been fruitful in the resignations of General officers and in misrepresentations of his own sentiments. He has been so badly treated in one way or another that it will be difficult to persuade him ever to leave home again.

Is Richmond the Rebel Capital?—During the past month there have been various removals of public offices. The Treasurer's office, including the disbursing department, has been removed from the second floor of the building, which was used in the olden time as a hotel. Of this building we have heard many building opposite the American Hotel. The Quartermaster General's office has been removed to the second floor of the building at the corner of Bank and Tenth streets. The vous of a desperate class of people, and many dark and bloody crimes are known to have been committed within its walls. Many instreets. Communication with the city could be easily established by means of a double-track horse railway. It will be time enough, however, to talk of this matter when the main point is decided.

From the Cumberland Gap.—The Abingdon discovered the remains of several of the young ladie supposed to have been murdered in the mouse years ago, together with the skeleton and committed all sorts of depredations. They

The Gallant Cadets .- The Virginia Military Instistute lives through the war at Lexington, Rockbridge county, Va., within the easy grasp of the Federal troops. The Cadets are grasp of the Federal troops. The Cadets are now drilled as a cavalry corps, and recently marched to the assistance of the doughty Imboden. The Whig says: "We learn, by report of Major General Smith to the Adjutant General eral of the State, that the corps of Cadets returned to the Institute on the 11th inst., by advice of General Imboden, all safe, except a slight accident to Cadet Phillips, of Powhatan, not at all dangerous."

Distinguished Arrivals—Lieutenant-General Polk and staff, says the Advertiser of the 10th inst, arrived in Montgomery on Sunday, and remained over until yesterday, en route for their new field of duty in Mississippi. Those who have heretofore been unable to provide a Kellogg, who is at present in Paris .- Dispatch. The Examiner mentions the arrest of two abetting slaves to escape from their own homes, giving them passes to go within the Federal lines. "There is no telling yet what amount of loss these two negroes have entailed upon the owners of slaves, by facilitating their escape in the manner described; and their punishment should be adequate to their crime, and at the same time calculated, by its severity, to strike a wholesome terror into the minds all negroes inclined to meddle in the affairs of "Capital execution would not transcend the emergencies of the case in the above instances of negro conspiracy and faithlessness." The last remark of the Examiner is strongly n contrast with the old pretence that nothing ould ever shake the confidence and affection

We give below the exordium of Mr. Everett's oration at Gettysburg: It was appointed by law in Athens, that the obsequies of the citizens who fell in battle should be performed at the public expense, and in the most honorable manner. Their bones were carefully gathered up from the funeral pyre, where their bodies were consumed and brought home to the city. fumed, and brought home to the city. There, for three days before the interment, they lay in state, beneath tents of honor, to receive the votive offerings of friends and relatives—flowers, weapons, precious ornaments, painted vases (wonders of art, which, after two thousand years, adorn the museums of modern Europe)—the last tributes of surviving affector. Ten coffins of funereal cypress received the honorable deposit, one for each of the tribes of the city, and an eleventh in memory of the unrecognized, but not therefore unhon-ored, dead, and of those whose remains could not be recovered. On the fourth day the mournful procession was formed; mothers, wives, sisters, daughters, led the way, and to wive, sisters, daugnters, led the way, and to them it was permitted by the simplicity of ancient manners to utter aloud their lamentations for the beloved and the lost; the male relatives of the de-ceased followed; citizens and strangers closed the train. Thus marshalled they moved to the place of interment in that fa-mous Gersmicus, the most heautiful subustmous Ceramicus, the most beautiful suburb of Athens, which had been adorned by Cimon, the son of Miltiades, with walks and fountairs and columns; whose groves were filled with altars, shrines, and temples; whose gar-dens were ever green with streams from the neighboring hills, and shaded with the trees

As my eye ranges over the fields whose sods were so lately moistened y the blood of gallant and loyal men, I feel, s never before, how truly it was said of old that it is sweet and becoming to die for one's country. I feel, as never before, how justly, from the dawn of history to the present time, and admiration to the memory of those who mobly sacrifice their lives, that their fellow men may live in safety. And, if this tribute were ever due, when, to whom, could it be more justly paid than to those whose last resting place we this day commend to the bless-

You feel, though the occasion is mournful, that it is good to be here. You feel that it was greatly auspicious for the cause of the country, that the men of the East and the men of the West, the men of nineteen sister States, stood side by side, on the perilous ridges of the battle. You now feel it a new nd of union, that they shall lie side by side halled them to the combat, shall awake heir slumbers. God bless the union;—it is earer to us for the blood of those brave men thed in its defence. FEELING IN MISSISSIPPI .- The Memphis Buletin, upon the authority of a well-informed orrespondent, says:

Mississippians all acknowledge that they are whipped, and would gladly give up and make the best terms possible, if they were althe option of continuing the fight, or giving up the negroes and quit, they would accept a heavy tax on any man now to feed and clothe the negroes, and if they could be allowed to return to their homes and live in peace, en-joying the little that is left them, they would heart" for revolution, now teach the people to believe if they continue to fight they will peir lands, houses, liberty-in fact everything hey possess, and become the absolute slaves of ard Yankee task-masters. Our informant, in reply to a question whether the people could be so deluded, replied not only that they be ieved that, but that fully one-half the people will hereafter possess the lands and their own ers be driven out. He says the war would not last ten days if the people understood the real facts, they could stay at their homes and enjoy their freedom and their houses and their A BRIEF BUT EVENTFUL HISTORX .- From the Detroit Free Press we clip the following: The history of a Federal soldier named private in Loomis's Battery, has many feaforced into an inglorious retreat.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, ) February 23, 1862. Major-General B. F. Butler, U. S. Army: GENERAL: You are assigned to the command of the land forces destined to co-operate with the navy in the attack upon New Orleans. You will use every means to keep the descination a profound secret, even from your staff officers, with the exception of your chief of staff and Lieutenant Weitzel, of the engineers. The force at your disposal will consist of the first thirteen regiments named in your memorandum handed to me in person, the 21st Indiana, 4th Wisconsin, and 6th Michigan (old and good regiments from Baltimore)— (old and good regiments from Baltimore)—
these three regiments will await your orders at Fort Monroe. Two companies of the 21st Indiana are well drilled at heavy artillery.
The cavalry force already en route for Ship
Island will be sufficient for your purposes.
After full consultation with officers well acquainted with the country in which it is proposed to operate, I have arrived at the conclusion that three light batteries fully equipped and one without horses will be all that will be necessary.

This will make your force about 14,400 infantry, 275 cavalry, 560 artillery; total 15,255

The commanding general of the Depart-The commanding general of the Department of Key West is authorized to loan you, temporarily, two regiments; Fort Pickens can probably give you another, which will bring your force to nearly 18,000. The object of your expedition is one of vital importance—the capture of New Orleans. The route selected is up the Mississippi River, and the first obstacle to be encountered, perhaps the only one is in the resistances offered by the only one, is in the resistances offered by Forts St. Philip and Jackson. It is expected that the navy can reduce the works: in that ficient garrison in them to render them per-GAME.—The Worthington (Ind.) Gazette says the prairies and forests in the vicinity of that town are full of almost every species of game—turkeys, deer, prairie chickens, ducks course be removed as soon as the forts are

Should the navy fail to reduce the works. you will land your forces and slege train, and endeavor to breach the works, silence their fire, and carry them by assault. The next resistance will be near the English

Bend, where there are some earthen batteries; here it may be necessary for you to land your troops, to co-operate with the naval attack, although it is more than probable that the navy, unassisted, can accomplish the result. If these works are taken, the city of New Orleans necessarily falls.

In that event it will probably be best to occupy Algiers with the mass of your troops, also the eastern bank of the river above the city—it may be necessary to place some troops in the city to preserve order; though, if there appears sufficient Union sentiment to control the city, it may be best for purposes of disci-pline to keep your men out of the city. After obtaining possession of New Orleans, it will be necesary to reduce all the works guarding its approaches from the east, and articularly to gain the Manchae Pass. Baton Rouge, Berwick Bay, and Fort Liv ingston will next claim your attention. A feint on Galveston may facilitate the objects we have in view. I need not call your roads themselves. The occupation of Baton Rouge, by a combined naval and land force, bearing in mind the necessity of occupying Jackson, Mississippi, as soon as you can safely do so, either after or before you have effected the junction. Allow nothing to divert you from obtaining full possession of all the approaches to New Orleans

When the object is accomplished to its fulles extent, it will be necessary to make a com-bined attack on Mobile, in order to gain poscontrol the railway terminus at the city. structions, as the operations of the northern make the best terms possible, if they were allowed to do so. He says if they could have state that the general objects of the expedi tion are, first, the reduction of New Orleans and all its approaches, then Mobile and all its defences, then Pensacola, Galveston, &c. It is probable that by the time New Orleans is reduced, it will be in the power of the government to reinforce the land forces sufficiently to accomplish all these objects; in the meantime you will please give all the assistance in your power to the army and navy commanders in your vicinity, never losing sight is the capture and firm retention of New Or-

Bowling Green, Nov. 23, 1863. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal: From the commencement of our present national troubles to the present time, I have been a constant reader of the Journal, and have watched with great interest, add, at times, painful anxiety, its course in the conflict for national existence. In my opinion, the Journal has been worth to republican freedom a hundred thousand veteran warriors in the contest. Its ability and its great firmness and devotion to the constitution and laws of the whole country have excited the highest admiwhere. The true Union men, the real friends of the country, all bear witness to this point. Unfortunately for the country, however, there are traitors in Kentucky, who seem to esteem it their first duty to destroy the Journal and build upon its ruins a more loyal paper, de voted to the abolition of slavery and the over throw of the constitutions of the State and nation. Not long ago I saw a letter from a prominent and influential citizen of Louisville proposing to do this thing. His proposition was well rebuked, as it deserved to be. The people of this part of the State have suffered much from this insane rebellion. They have lost greatly in property and in many other respects. Their patriotism has passed a severe trial, and is all the brighter for it. Neither rebellion at home nor abolition abroad can drive them from their propr Each man feels the terrible danger which still hangs over him; but the one great purpose with Union men is to sustain the noble-hearted Gen. He is located at a point where the greatest caution and watchiulness are needed. The rebels of that dustrious, and pay but little respect to oaths or bonds. GENERAL MCCLELLAN.-Little by little, in UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, 185. No. 162. GENERAL McCLELLAN.—Little by little, in spite of the efforts at Washington to suppress them, we begin to get at the details of the work done by General McClellan and the greatness of the debt of gratitude which the country owes him. Mason Brothers, of New York, have published Mr. Parton's History of General Butler in New Orleans, containing much new matter. It seems that General McClellan is entitled to the credit for laying down the plan of operations in the Southwest, and if General Butler had done all that he was ordered to do we should have had a very different story from there. Batchelor's New Tollet Cream for Dressins

Lieutenant-Colonel A. Wake Holeman has been promoted to the Colonecy, and assigned to the command of the 11th Kentucky Cavalry. The promotion was richly deserved, and the 11th Kentucky has every reason to be proud of its new commander. He comes of a chivalric stock, and does honor to his lineage. We confidently predict for Colonel Holeman an eventful and brilliant career.

ITEMS.—A large number of rebel prisoners arrived on the Nashville train last evening. The trial of Gibbs, for the murder of Johnson, is now progressing in this city.

A number of Government teamsters have been arrested during the past few days, and confined in the Military Prison, for fast driving. A wholesome restraint on the draydrivers, also, would be duly appreciated. A dead negro was found in a barrel at Nashville on Thursday.

Four hundred thousand bushels of coal arrived at this port yesterday, nearly all of which was bought by Government contractors. Several recruiting officers in our city are meeting with great success in filling up their

There is no truth in the publication that the chief depot for the Quartermasters' stores in the West and Southwest was to be removed to Louisville. No change from the present arrangement of quartermaster and commissary lepots has been ordered. We regret to learn that our efficient Provost Marshal, Col. Hanson, is confined to his bed with an affection of the throat. An immense amount of hauling is done daily between this city and Jeffersonville.

The railroads are doing an extensive business. A recent order from Washington directs that all the troops in the Northern States shall immediately be sent to the field, and their places be supplied by invalid troops. A despatch was received in Jeffersonville yesterday stating that Col. George Kram, of that place, was wounded seriously in the shoulder in the late battle. Two hundred and fifty recruits from Illinois, and one hundred and fifty conscripts from Michigan, arrived in this place yesterday. Five of the conscripts escaped before reaching here, and one was killed in attempting to run off. Three hundred and twenty straggles and deserters were sent to their regs vesterday.

Eugene Schell, formerly a compositor in this office, has been promoted to a First Lieutenancy for gallant conduct. He enlisted in the Eighty-first Indiana as a private. Thomas Theodore is the name of the unfortunate man drowned off the Jeffersonville erry-boat, a short time since. A great number of cars are being transported from the Fort Wayne Road to this city, to be used on the Frankfort Railroad Business is very lively in Jeffersonville Wa are told there is not a vacant house in that place. The demand for business houses and residences is unprecedented. The city is very healthy, and in a flourishing condition.

There is a great stampede from Memphis to escape the conscription. With the first of January comes the draft. From present appearances, it will come sooner than the volunteers.

A young man named James Santorage, a clerk in a store at Cincinnati, was fined $29 54, on Tuesday last, for kissing a married lady against her will. E. A. Smith, contractor for supplying the Government with several thousand horses, sentenced by court-martial, at Cincinnati, ew days since, to imprisonment for a term of one year, and pay to the Government a fine of twenty thousand dollars. The town of New Ipswich, New Hampshire, has the honor of being the first in that State, and probably the first in New England, of filling her quota under the recent call for 300.000 men. The States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan, are detached from the Department of the Ohio, and are under the control of the Provost Marshal of Washington. W. L. Begley, of Nashville, was recently robbed of over $10,000. He offers a reward of $4,000 for the capture of the thief and the return of the money. General Cox, who has been for some time past military commander of the District of the Ohio, has been appointed to the command of the 23d army corps, now scattered through Kentucky on duty at various points. He leaves for Lexington the early part of the coming week to enter on his new command. Thirteen hundred rebel prisoners arrived at Nashville from the front on Thursday night. James Perkins, a noted guerilla of Tennessee, was killed by Mr. D. F. Sharp, of Edged, at a point on the Hyde's Ferry pike, on Vednesday night. The examination of Andrew Davis, on the charge of murdering Sergeant O'Keefe, took place in the Mayor's Court, at Covington, on Thursday, resulting in his being committed to to await his trial at the next term of the jan of Newport is empty, not having d an inmate for several days. John T. Dial was convicted of horse-stealing in the Circuit Court at Alexandria, on Wednesday, and sentenced to four years imf the same individual was fined $50 for carrving concealed weapons. Mr. C. S. Symms was robbed of $2,700 in Nashville one day last week. The money belonged to his brother, Major A. L. Symms, of prisonment in the penitentiary. The father

Coal advanced two cents on the bushel yesrday. It was selling at $9 50 per load. boy, named Frank Euler, fell from some els over which he was walking, in a store Main street, yesterday, and broke his leg. The citizens of the Eastern States generally are holding meetings to push forward the work of volunteering. Large bounties and increased pay are the inducements offered. Two horse-thieves, named Goodpasture and Naylor, escaped from the jail at Burlington, Boone county, Kentucky, a few nights ago. We learn that James T. Bramlette, the gifted orator and talented young Representative from Adair county, has been appointed Lieutenant-Colonel of the Twelfth Kentucky. We hope he may accept the commission, and are satisfied that his honors as a soldier will equal his fame as a statesman.

Pulaski, Tenn., is now held by Gen. Dodge's ROBBERY .- An old gentleman, whose name

we were unable to learn, arrived in our city on Thursday morning and put up at the Planters' House. Shortly afterwards he handed the landlady, Mrs. Young, a package containing $900, requesting her to keep it for nim until called for. Having no safe in the fice, Mrs. Young put it in her bureau-drawer, stairs, leaving the key in the lock. She the room the hopeful youth was absent, and ed her son to the room at noon, and left im in charge of the money while she atended to the dinner. When she returned to pon investigation it was discovered that he had decamped with the money. The officers were notified at Cincinnati of the robbery. and yesterday he was arrested in that city and f money recovered. His father has fter him, and it is hoped that nearly all

MR. RUFUS SOMERBY .- This gifted lecturer and energetic manager is about to revisit Louisville with Goodwin & Co.'s Polyorama of the War, which is now, we understand, under his exclusive control.

The immense popularity acquired by this United States is due to the liberal and enerthoroughly posted in all the requirements of his profession, while, as a manager, he can the cater successfully for the public taste. As a ecturer, he ranks far above all his competitors. Never can we forget the patriotic fervor with which he recounted the deeds of daring of our brave troops on the battle-field, while his glowing pathos in describing the agonies of the wounded called forth a tear of sympathy from many who are unused to the melting mood. The Polyorama will open on Monday evening at Masonic Temple, and a crowded house may be confidently expected.

A HARD JOKE.—Three men, named respectively Russell, Ainsworth, and McLain, entered McIlvogue's saloon, yesterday, and, observing a ten-dollar bill on the shelf behind the counter, asked Mrs. Mcllvogue, who was waiting upon them, if she would take two fives for it. She handed the bill to Russell, and he ran off with it. His two companion asserted that she did not give him the bill, and, while they were contending, an officer, who had been sent for, came in, and arrested the men. When Russell saw his friends under arrest he returned, and tried to make out that "it was all a joke." but the landlady remarked to him that he "carried the joke too far" before he returned it. He, too, was arrested, and the three men were lodged in jail.

BROWNLOW'S WHIG .- We learn that in consequence of the demand for Parson Brownlow's Knoxville Whig, and the uncertain mail facilities between East Tennessee and the North, it has been determined to reprint it in Cincinnati. The Parson having been advised to get out of all possible danger of falling into rebel hands, will reach Cincinnati in a day or two.

ANOTHER ROBBERY .- A clerk at the Kentucky Eating-House, named J. H. Huffman, broke open a trunk belonging to Mr. Nicholson, the proprieter, yesterday, and robbed it of all his clothing and $86 in money, together with the money contained in the cash drawer. Nothing has been seen or heard of him since.

Marshal Kane and James B. Clay are said to have been the leaders of the recent attempt to release the prisoners on Johnson's Island. The Baltimore American does not believe it, and says that Marshal Kane has not the pluck for such an undertaking.

We are having a great many inquiries for Sewing Machines from various parts of the country, and, as we cannot conveniently reply to them all by mail, we have thought it proper to state our opinion in regard to them in this public manner. We have used Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machine, and we can say in simple, not easily put out of order, and, in point of effectiveness and finish, no other ma-chine stands ahead of it. We have recently devoted much of our time in VISTING THE EUROFEAN HOSPITALS, availing unselves of the knowledge and researches of the nost skilled Physicians and Surgeons of Europe and on the covitions—such men as OIVIALE, LENOIRE, SICARD, BRECHETEAU. ACTON, and OURLINGS, of the Fr. ach and English Hospitals. Our tour exended through France, Italy, Germany, Holland, England, Ireland, Scotiand, and Wales, visiting in our route the principal hospitals in Paris, London, Come, Venice Vienna, Dresden, Berlin, &c. We have ear amply repaid by the additional knowledge we have caucined in the treatment of various diseases to which we have directed our attention. Those who blace themselves under our care will, whether male or emaile, now have the full benefit of the many NEW AND EFFICIENT REMEDIES which we are easiled to introduce into our practice, and the public may est assured of the same zeal, assiduity, SECRECY, and attention being paid to their cases which has so uncessfully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician near FEOULIAB department of professional practice, and the public may near the control of the same zeal, assiduity, SECRECY, and attention being paid to their cases which has so uncessfully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician near FEOULIAB department of professional practices. ce.

NG MEN, TAKE PARTICULAR NOTION .-YOUNG MEN, TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.—
Tr. H devotes much of his time to the treatment of hose cases caused by a secret habit which ruins both ody and mind, unfitting the unfertunate individual or either business or society. The sad effects of these ariy habits, or the excess of riper years, are to weaken and deblitate the constitution, destroy the physical and mental powers, diminish and enfeche the natural selings, and exhaust the vital energies of manhood: the pleasures of life are marred, the object of marriage rusfrated, and existence itself rendered a term of uneasing misery and regret. Such persons, especially hose contemplating marriage, should lose no time in making immediate application, as Dr. H., by his new reatment, is enabled to secure a speedy and permatent cure.
